ALOK JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed inter alia seeking protection to the life and liberty of the petitioners.

2. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioners at length. What transpires is that petitioner No.1 is a divorced lady, aged 49 years and is entangled in an illicit relationship with petitioner No.2, who is a married man of 33 years, who has a wife and children also. The children of petitioner No.1 are already settled abroad but the wife and children of petitioner No.2 are facing the brunt of the illicit and promiscuous relationship of the petitioners. The only averment in the petition qua alleged threat is narrated in Para 10 of the petition, which reads as under:

“10.That the respondent No.4 visited the residence of petitioners and abused the petitioner No.1 outside the house of petitioner No.2 and created scene and also defamed her by leveling false and frivolous allegations in the presence of general public. The respondents No.4 and 5 also issue threats to the petitioners with dire consequences.”

3. A perusal of the above does not demonstrates any threat perception to the life and liberty of the petitioners and this petition has been filed only to cover up the illicit and promiscuous relationship of the petitioners by abusing and misusing the process of law.

4. This Court does not find any merit in the present petition and the same is dismissed with cost of Rs.25000/- to be paid by the petitioners to respondent No.4  i.e. wife of petitioner No.2  within four weeks from today, who shall make an FDR in a Nationalized Bank in name of the minor daughter of petitioner No.2 .
